 - (e) Whether the shareholder (or if a group of shareholders, each member of the group) and the candidate or candidates that the shareholder is proposing consent to being identified in any proxy statement utilized in connection with the election of Trustees;
 - (f) The name or names of the candidate(s) for Trustee that the shareholder is proposing, together with comprehensive and appropriate background information about the candidate(s) to permit an evaluation against the criteria set forth in the Statement of Policy attached hereto as Exhibit A; and
 - (g) A representation that the candidate or candidates are willing to provide additional information about themselves, including assurances as to their independence, that the Committee may request.

Exhibit A

Statement of policy on criteria for selecting Trustees

(As Adopted August 18, 2005; Amended November 20, 2014)

The Committee has adopted this Statement of Policy to memorialize its views as to the appropriate criteria for selecting Trustees of the Trust. This Statement of Policy has been prepared in connection with filling Trustee vacancies or adding Trustee(s) that may arise in the future.

The Committee expects that candidates for Trustee will have the following characteristics:

- All candidates for Trustee shall be individuals of the highest character and integrity.
- An Independent Trustee candidate may not be an “interested person” of the Trust within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. Among other things, beneficial ownership of Diamond Hill Investment Group, Inc. (ticker: DHIL) or any other securities issued by any of the Trust’s investment adviser (or its affiliates), or any sub-investment advisers (or their affiliates), by the candidate (or any spouse or dependent of the candidate) disqualifies a person from being considered as an Independent Trustee candidate.
- An Independent Trustee candidate (and any spouse or dependent of such candidate) should have no material relationship that could create an appearance of lack of independence in respect of the Trust, the Trust’s affiliates, or the Trust’s principal service providers. Material relationships can include (among others) commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable, and familial relationships.
- All candidates for Trustee need the disposition to act independently in fact in respect of the Trust’s investment adviser(s) and other affiliates. It is expected that Trustees will play an active and, if necessary, an adversarial role in pursuing the best interests of the Trust and its shareholders.
- All candidates for Trustee need to have demonstrated sound business judgment gained through broad experience in significant positions where the candidate has dealt with management, technical, financial, and/or regulatory issues that would benefit the Trust.
- All candidates for Trustee should have sufficient financial or accounting knowledge to understand the complex financial environment of the Trust.
- All candidates for Trustee need the capacity for the hard work and attention to detail that is required to be an effective Trustee in light of the Trust’s complex regulatory, operational, and marketing setting.
- All candidates for Trustee should be prepared to devote a substantial amount of time preparing for and participating in Board and Board committee meetings and participating in continuing education and training sessions for Trustees.

The Committee may determine that a candidate for Trustee who does not have the type of previous experience or knowledge referred to above nevertheless shall be considered as a Trustee nominee if the Committee finds that the candidate has additional qualifications such that the candidate's qualifications, taken as a whole, demonstrate the same level of fitness to serve as other current or proposed Trustees.

The following characteristics are desirable for a Trustee candidate, but are not mandatory:

- The candidate should have the ability to serve fifteen years.
- The candidate should represent a diversity of interests, viewpoints, background, experience, and other demographics. Age, gender, race and national origin are relevant, but not determining factors considered by the Committee.
- The candidate should demonstrate an ability to think and act independently, as well as the capacity to work in a collegial manner with persons of different educational, business and cultural backgrounds and should possess skills and expertise that complement the attributes of the existing Trustees.
- The candidate should have recent experience in the financial services industry, or on corporate or other institutional oversight bodies, or regulatory experience in connection with such corporate or institutional oversight bodies. An Independent Trustee candidate, however, should not have any relationships that could result in business, management, regulatory, or other conflicts of interest that would violate any applicable law or regulation or interfere with the proper performance of the duties of a Trustee.

The following are desirable characteristics of the Trustees as a group:

- The Trustees will be drawn generally from the ranks of respected and accomplished senior business, professional, non-profit, or community leaders.
- The Trustees will strive to achieve diversity.
- The Trustees as a whole should reflect a diversity of business experience. It is preferable that at least one Independent Trustee qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert," as such term is defined by forms or rules under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The Committee will strive to achieve a balance of experience of Trustees with respect to management roles and other experience.
- For each candidate, the Committee will evaluate specific experience in light of the makeup of the current Board.
